“ When we were young the school bus used to go right by the Hildebrandt farm, Mark would get off the bus in front of his home. The fields were beautiful, the cows were gorgeous...and the dogs were on time meeting the bus...everyone was going about their chores outside. Always looked forward to riding by seeing the picture postcard setting of the Hildebrandt farm. It was then called "The back road to Lewis."

I had family with me while visiting Elizabethtown/Lewis area a couple of years ago, and pointed out the Hildebrandt farm, still after 50-some years, a beauty. I saw Ms. Hildebrandt in the Grand Union grocery store, while visiting, and spoke with her about the beautiful memories it created for me as a young person riding by her property. Now her and Mark can be together again. It's memories of a bygone era.
