“ I have many fond memories of Pat since he was virtually a member of my family for many years. He was extremely good-natured and such a lover of animals. He was at ease in any type of situation albeit serious or funny. It's a shame that God took him so early but since Pat had been suffering for so many years now, it was a blessing in disguise. My heart goes out to his two children, Jennifer and Sean. I remember them from the time they were in grade school and now they are both beautiful, successful adults. Your father is very proud of you both I'm sure and I also know he loved his grandson. He lives on with his children and grandchildren.
